McCormick Resumes Battle Over Money

County Commissioner B. E. McCormick Monday plead for the third straight time for a division of precinct 4 road and bridge funds with precinct 1. And once again he got no sympathy from the other commissioners.

The plea in Monday's commissioners court meeting, in which McCormick claimed C. Y. Johnson, precinct 4 commissioner, should split his road and bridge money with McCormick's precinct because Johnson neglected roads in that area when he was commissioner of it.

McCormick's precinct now takes in about half of South Amarillo. Johnson was commissioner in that section of the county before the recent redistricting move.

McCormick's precinct lies to the east of Highway 87, while Johnson has charge of that part of the county west of Highway 87.

Three-Week Fight

In his three-week long fight, McCormick had earlier gotten the commissioners to authorize E. T. Cummings, county auditor, to study the funds for possible redistricting. Cummings' report shows that precinct 1 ended September with a balance of $18,332; precinct 2, $66,495; precinct 3, $10,308, and precinct 4, $63,327.

McCormick challenged Johnson to show one county road that has been paved or widened in precinct 1 in the past three years.

Johnson replied that precinct 4 had spent $18,311 during September, of which $13,000 was spent in what is now precinct 1.

No Cross Examination

"I won't be put on the witness stand and be cross examined by you," Johnson told McCormick.

McCormick replied, "I wouldn't want to do that."

Clarence Beckman, precinct 2 commissioner, defended Johnson, saying he had done much more for people in his precinct than Beckman could have done.

Cummings said he thought the budget reflected the two had spent just about the same.

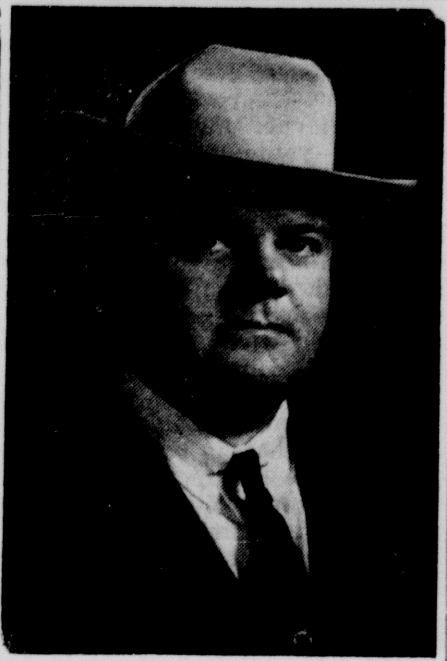

Motion Fails

McCormick mentioned that he had built "12 or 14 miles of road for $17,000."

Both Johnson and Beckman protested that it was "impossible" to build that much road for that much money.

McCormick earlier in the meeting suggested that the commissioners court meet in Amarillo every third Monday, a motion that failed when it was discovered such an action would be illegal.

The state law requires the meetings to be in the county seat.

W. A. "BILL" WILSON

Wilson Asking For JP Election

W. A. "Bill" Wilson has announced his candidacy for election to the office of Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 1 with the following statement:

"I wish to take this means of announcing my candidacy for the office of Justice of the Peace Precinct No. 1 in Randall County, subject to the Democratic primary.

"I was appointed to this office by the Commissioners' Court of Randall County on April 10 of this year to fill the vacancy left by the death of the late Carl Anderson. I had worked with Mr. Anderson for some time before his death and was well acquainted with the duties of the office.

"Prior to my appointment, I had been a member of the Randall County Sheriff's Office for several years.

"I am 39 years of age, married, and have three children, two of whom are in the Canyon schools. My family and I are members of the First Baptist Church of Canyon. I am a veteran of World War II, having served in the U. S. Navy in the European Theater. I am a member of the V.F.W., American Legion, and am now president of the Canyon Lions Club.

"My wife, Ina Mae, two daughters, son, and I live east of Canyon, where we have made our home for the past 13 years.

"My promise to you, the people of Randall County, is that I will serve you with fairness and be just in all my decisions. I will endeavor to contact as many of you as possible between now and election time without taking time from the office of Justice of the Peace.

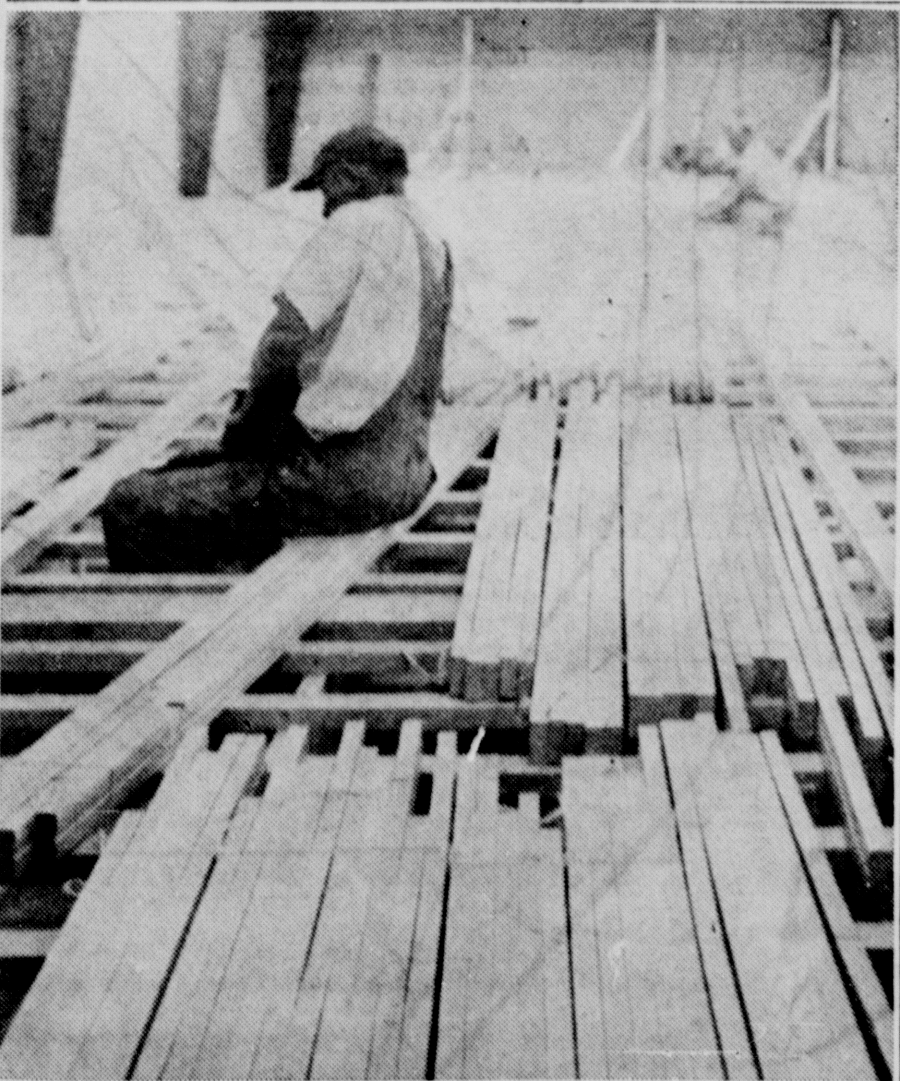

"I will sincerely appreciate your vote and support in the coming election."

Margaret LeGrand Dies After Injury

Margaret LeGrand, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch LeGrand, died last night, apparently after being injured in an auto accident.

She was admitted to Neblett Hospital at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday, and later transferred to an Amarillo funeral home.

The accident was being investigated by sheriff's deputies and highway patrolmen late Wednesday morning.

Work was progressing rapidly on Canyon Bowl this week as manager Eddie Knowles prepares for opening the 12-lane bowling alley, located south of Canyon on Highway 87. Workmen last week began putting in the alleys and Knowles said it would only be a short time before Canyon Bowl is open.

Chairman, Plan of Action Due At Meet to Fight Annexation

Election of a chairman and a plan of action for the Randall County citizens committee are to be decided Thursday night as opponents of the proposed move to annex part of Randall County to Potter County marshal their forces.

The meeting for tomorrow night was called by 18 Randall County residents at a session Tuesday night in the courthouse annex on Bowie Street in Amarillo.

Attending the meeting were 11 Canyon residents, one citizen of Umlinger, and six from south Amarillo.

Organization Postponed

Original purpose of the Tuesday meeting was to organize a committee to actively oppose the annexation move. However, several South Amarilloans expected were not present at the meeting, and it was decided to postpone organization until tomorrow.

The move to organize citizens to fight the annexation of some 145 square miles of Randall County by Potter County came after Randall and Potter county judges were presented petitions asking that an annexation election be called.

A petition signed by 57 Randall Countians was presented Randall County Judge Roy Joe Stevens October 5.

Move Line South

If the election is called and is successful, the Randall-Potter county line would be moved 7.4 miles south of its present location along

Bufs to Attempt Upset of Season

Winless West Texas State Saturday meets one of the strongest teams in the south, Mississippi Southern, in the Bufs' new 20,000-seat football stadium. Kickoff time is 8 p. m.

Several thousand students from the Plains area, guests of WT on "High School Day," will be in the stands as Coach Clark Jarnagin's Bufs attempt to spring the upset of the season. The Southern, rated the No. 1 small college team in the nation, have won two and lost one—a 7-3 decision to Texas A&M.

Although they are listed in the "small college" category, the Southern are "big time" in caliber and meet such clubs as Auburn, Alabama, North Carolina State, and Texas A. & M. Mississippi Southern also is the largest school in the state, enrollment-wise, topping Ole Miss and Mississippi State by a few hundred.

Coached by Pie Vann, Southern was one of the nation's few undefeated, untied teams of 1958, and has been one of the country's top independent schools for several years. West Texas and Southern first met in the post-season Tangerine Bowl in 1957, with the Bufs pulling that one out, 20-13. In two subsequent regular season outings, the Southern have posted 34-0 and 15-0 victories.

The Bufs lost their fourth straight Saturday to Texas Western, 13-12, and saw right halfback Billy Adams sidelined for the season with a broken arm. Regular right half John Hall was sidelined in the Bufs' second game, against Arizona, and will have to do some fancy maneuvering to fill that gap.

Toastmasters Club Installs Officers

Officers for the coming six months were installed Monday at a meeting of the Canyon Toastmasters Club.

Installed were Hampton Lisle, president; Bob Lindsey, educational vice president; Mike Morris, administrative vice president; Guy Knowles, secretary; Joe Frank, treasurer, and Wayne McNeill, sergeant at arms.

The new officers were installed at a ladies night meeting.

Incoming President Lisle presented Dr. C. R. Nester, outgoing president, with a bronze plaque for his service to the organization following the installation.

29th Avenue in Amarillo. This would establish the county line 6.01 miles north of the city limits of the City of Canyon.

The constitutionality of the election has been questioned by Avert Lair, Randall County criminal district attorney. Lair says Judge

Stevens would be justified in not calling an election because there is no legal machinery to carry out the proposal if the election passes.

Violates State Constitution

Lair also has questioned the move because it would move the county line closer than 12 miles to the county seat, which is in violation of the state constitution, he said.

Those present Tuesday night, however, favored having an organization to provide facts to the voters on the election.

Dr. J. Manly Bryan of Canyon, who presided at the session, said, "I think we ought to be prepared and ready to go at high gear in a moment's notice."

Two Favor Move

Most of the others agreed with Dr. Bryan after a South Amarillo resident told the group that two of three neighbors his wife had talked to that day had said they favored the shift in the county boundary line.

It appeared that a majority of those present favored having the election called to prove that the majority of the people are not in favor of moving the line.

Attorney Lair at last week's meeting said, "I think the people (of South Amarillo) need to know the simple facts and this would make the proposal seem ridiculous."

Judge Bill Flescher, former district attorney for the 47th Judicial District, labeled the annexation move "the most disgraceful thing I've ever seen a bunch of civic-minded people try to pull off."

Harrison Beats Out Six Contenders for Weekly Grid Prize

Lowell H. Harrison beat out six other contenders last week to win the $5 merchandise certificate awarded weekly in The Canyon News' football contest.

Seven persons picked 17 winners of last week's football games, but Harrison had the most nearly correct tie-breaker score to win the prize. Harrison chose the University of Texas over the University of Oklahoma by a score of 20-13. The score in the game was Texas 19, Oklahoma 12.

Those picking 17 winners, in addition to Harrison, were C. E. Winn, Carl Hair, Jerry Smyrl, Brad Winn, Jim Cutsinger, and Jim Callarman. Only Harrison, Smyrl, Brad Winn, and Cutsinger figured Texas would win the tie-breaker game.

The football contest is sponsored in The News each week by 16 Canyon merchants and businesses. The contest can be found inside today's News.

P-TA to Study New Curriculum

"The New Curriculum in Language Arts" is the subject planned for tomorrow night's meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association, scheduled at 7:45 at the Canyon Elementary School.

A panel of the language arts teachers in the schools will give the program.

A social hour will follow. Bob Darnell will give the devotional, and Mrs. A. W. Lair will present a solo.

A nursery will be provided.

Walker, Black Tell Homecoming Plans

Plans for West Texas State College's Golden Anniversary homecoming have been announced by Dr. Jack Walker, chairman of the college's homecoming committee, and Roland Black, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Homecoming is set for November 7, with a parade, barbecue, afternoon football game, and a dance as highlights of the day's activities.

Tickets for the barbecue, set at 12 noon in old Buffalo Stadium, are on sale in the Chamber of Commerce office for $1.25. Black said mail orders will be accepted.

Catering for the barbecue will be Walter Jetton of Fort Worth, who has been called "kingpin of the barbecue men" by the Saturday Evening Post. Jetton's barbecue outfit serves up to 10,000 people.

Walker is also encouraging businessmen to enter floats in the parade, to be held at 10:30 a. m. Merchants who wish to enter floats are requested to see Black at the Chamber of Commerce office. No deadline has been announced yet. Merchants may not enter anything except floats.

Theme of the parade will be "Golden Anniversary." Homecoming activities will begin with registration at 9 a. m. in the Administration Building, with the

Artist Lineup Caps Drive for Members

Announcement of a dancer and a pianist as two of the four performers to give concerts here during the coming season climaxed a week-long membership drive by the Canyon Community Concert Association.

The membership drive, which was termed "very successful" by the group's officers, ended at 5 p. m. Saturday. The number of student and adult tickets sold was increased over last year, officials said.

Two performers previously had been announced for the concert series.

Announced Artists

Paul Draper, recognized as one of the world's foremost tap dancers, will appear here December 12. He will be assisted by Ellen Martin, his partner, and a pianist.

A French woman pianist, Nicole Henroit-Schweitzer, is the other artist announced Saturday. She is married to Jean-Jacques Schweitzer, a nephew of Albert Schweitzer.

To appear here February 22, she has made many recordings on RCA Victor and London labels.

Performers already announced are violinist virtuoso Michael Rabin, who will appear March 9, and Metropolitan Opera contralto Elena Nicolaidi, scheduled for January 16.

Held in WT Auditorium

The concerts are held in the West Texas State College auditorium, and are attended by members and their guests only.

Members of the board of directors, who selected the artists late Saturday, decided to change the admissions procedure.

Instead of using a membership to admit one person to each of four concerts, members may use it to

Levi Cole Home After Operation

Levi Cole, president of the First National Bank, is scheduled to be released from Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo tomorrow where he has been hospitalized since October 5.

Mr. Cole underwent surgery for the removal of a cataract. Mrs. Cole reports that he is improving rapidly.

Work Due to Start Soon on WT Dorms

Construction on two new dormitories and a major addition to the Student Union Building at West Texas State College is expected to start shortly after contracts are let October 30, President James P. Cornette said Tuesday.

A loan of $1,474,000 to WT for construction of the buildings was approved last week by the Housing and Home Finance Agency in Washington. It was from the same agency that the college obtained funds in 1956 for the construction of Brown and Terrill halls and an addition to Stafford Hall.

The loan will be repaid by the college from revenue from the dormitories and other revenue producing properties, Dr. Cornette said.

Take Bids Thursday

The president said that plans now are to take bids Thursday and to have contracts ready for recommendation to the Board of Regents of Texas State Teachers Colleges when the group meets October 30 in Huntsville. It is hoped that the buildings will be ready for use by September, 1960.

About $500,000 will be used for a girls' dormitory, to be built on similar plans of Brown Hall, which features unit construction centered around an inside patio. The new dormitory, to house 174 women, will be a two-story building with balconies on the second floor around the patio.

Located on 26th

The new women's dormitory will be located just east of the home management house on 26th Street, with portions of it extending across the area formerly occupied by the ROTC rifle range.

The men's dormitory, also expected to cost $500,000, will be built east of old Buffalo Stadium on the north end of the campus. To house 176 men, it will be patterned on the plan of Terrill Hall, but it will be larger and have two stories.

Remainder of the loan will go to expanding the Student Union Building across Third Avenue to the south. The addition will house college health facilities and student activity areas.

What's With This Crusade?

One of the more humorous statements to come out of last week's meeting between committees of the Chamber of Commerce and Junior Chamber of Commerce was made by Avent Lair, Randall County's criminal district attorney.

Mr. Lair said, "I don't think you'll find anybody who has solicited the leadership of the Amarillo Jaycees to lead them to the promised land."

Undoubtedly the statement is true.

What prompted the Amarillo Jaycees to begin the current crusade to move the Randall-Potter county line southward—other than personal publicity—remains a mystery.

The six complaints which the Amarillo group published obviously were not based on fact, and certainly do not warrant further publicity.

It is significant that only one Amarillo organization is raising all the fuss. And at this critical stage of the Amarillo group's campaign, it has been able to procure only one endorsement to the project.

If the residents of South Amarillo are at a disadvantage by being in Randall County, it seems that all of the civic organizations—and certainly those centered in the southern part of town—would have joined the battle.

Only two conclusions can be drawn from this fact: either the residents of South Amarillo do not think they are at a disadvantage by being in Randall County (and they certainly aren't) or they simply don't care.

Apathy probably is the strongest single weapon any crusade has at its disposal, as may be the case here.

As long as a community stays apathetic, it is possible for a minority to speak for the community, whether or not it reflects the true attitude of the community.

Perhaps the Randall County citizens committee, which was to be organized Tuesday night, will bring the real leaders of South Amarillo out, so that the public can hear their views on the county line squabble. These leaders in South Amarillo should publicly acknowledge or refute the claims made in their behalf by the Amarillo Jaycees.

Everyone interested in the proposed election is placed at a disadvantage until the true feelings of the residents of South Amarillo are known.

Once the facts are known, however, the Amarillo Jaycees could have a very unpopular movement on their hands.

It appears that Randall County commissioners are above reproach in transacting county business. Generally, the commissioners bend over backwards to be fair with county services. Each has said more than once that "I'm a county commissioner, not just a precinct commissioner."

It may not be unfair to question the commissioners' methods, but there is no basis for questioning their intent.

The petition asking Judge Roy Joe Stevens to call an election to move the boundary line should be taken seriously. If it isn't, then Randall Countians could wake up some morning and find themselves living in a much smaller county.

A concerted effort by all those interested in the future of the county, and indeed this whole area, could defeat the election. But one committee or one group cannot accomplish this without help from those who have a stake in Canyon and Randall County. (OG)

Counties Are Changing

Lots of counties in the West Texas area, especially the "one town" counties, are watching with considerable interest the redistricting that took place recently in Randall County, when residents of South Amarillo demanded that the county line be moved south.

This was a startling proposal to Randall County commissioners, apparently, but it jolted them into another action—redistricting.

Recently, Randall County commissioners drew up different precinct lines which gave more representation to the heavier populated areas of the county, and this seemed to satisfy for the time being the people who were financing a big portion of Randall County's expenses.

The problem of the one-town county is the same in most of West Texas and for some time there has been some legislation introduced to remedy inequities. An Abilene representative has tried for the past two terms to get a bill passed which would make it mandatory for a county commissioner to represent not less than 10 percent of the county's population. It came fairly close to passage this year.

This seems like a reasonable enough request but naturally there are those opposed to it.

In Ochiltree County we have four precincts—with the bulk of the population in precinct 2, and practically all of the population in precincts 1 and 2, which take in Perryton. There are less than 10 percent of the voters in precinct 4 and maybe 10 percent in precinct 3.

Most counties in West Texas are laid out the same way, with some one town providing most of the population and in some cases providing the bulk of the county tax revenue.

We don't know of any strong movement in this area to redistrict county precincts and there may never be. But there is no denying that this move is being forced in other areas. It might be something to think about. (Ochiltree County Herald.)

What Our Neighbors Say . . .

Scissor Snippings

Ben Ezzell in the Canadian Record: In spite of all the advertising claims, America's best brains have yet to devise a really successful all-weather ball point pen.

We favor the ball points for reporting jobs because the point never snaps off in mid-sentence and the new jumbo refills rarely run out of ink, but there are times when we'd gladly trade the lot for an old fashioned soft lead pencil.

Last Friday was one of those times. We bravely waded into the muck and mire of the McLean football field armed with a clip-board full of water-resistant paper and a pair of the latest and finest ball-point pens . . . all set to record the play-by-play for posterity. But modern technology let us down.

These famous ball-points which are guaranteed not to skip when you're writing on butter won't write at all on water . . . or on a wet surface.

What we needed was the old-fashioned Reynolds pen (remember that one?) which was guaranteed to write under water but had the unfortunate characteristic of not writing very well anywhere else.

If some genius would just create a hybrid combining the Papermates resistance to butter with Reynolds' resistance to water, we might have something.

Dave McReynolds in the Friona Star:

Last weekend was quite a sloppy mess for football games.

Friday night as gametime approached at Chieftain Stadium you could see the fans craning their necks to see if the drizzle was going to get down to business or just make itself a nuisance.

Naturally before the game ended it came a pretty good shower which sent everyone scurrying for shelter.

We watched several games on TV, then about everyone we read about in the paper over the weekend reported that mud was one thing all the games had in common.

Sunday we watched two pro teams slog it out, and it was surely a muggy affair.

Monday morning, a bunch of us "koffee kup kwartermbacks" were reminiscing the days when we had played a game in the rain.

Naturally the first liar never had a chance, but we heard some good tales about rainy football games.

Operating Hotel for 3 Days Marked Significant Chapter

By BOYCE HOUSE

Cotulla in 1920 was a small, quiet town, with a row of business buildings two blocks long facing the railroad track; on beyond, on an elevation, the old courthouse; and, loftiest feature of the scene, a standpipe.

The Travelers' Hotel (then new—torn down back in the 1940's or thereabouts) stood on "the other side" of the railroad. The hotel was owned by a middle-aged couple named Widener and had been constructed by two sons, one of whom was named Owen. He had done carpentry work in the Ranger oil boom and told me of the high wages, high prices and lawlessness there.

The first Sunday afternoon (I had come to Cotulla to rest) while sitting in the lobby, I was startled by a volley of pistol shots and thought a gunfight had broken out but it proved to be a "fire alarm."

I had difficulty in sleeping at first. "All right," I said to myself, "if I don't sleep now, I'll sleep tomorrow—after all, I'm not going anywhere." This reflection was relaxing—and soon I was able to sleep soundly at night.

I had studied Spanish in high school (not many years past) and, obtaining a conversation book, brushed up. Then I would try my vocabulary out at the dining table, no doubt to the amusement (of which I was oblivious) of the others. Waiting on the table was a little Mexican girl and one day when she passed the biscuits, instead of saying "Gracias," I used an expression from the book, "Millon de gracias" — "a million thanks," probably suitable if someone had just saved your life. I was known as "million de gracias" for sometime after that.

Then there was a barber who was a very good domino player — I used to beat him. Not that I was good—quite the contrary. It irritated him to lose to one whom he knew to be an inferior player and this very feeling of irritation caused him to lose.

Occasionally, a traveling man who had been on a deer-hunt would bring in some venison and there would be a special treat for a chosen few (of which I was one) after the other guests had had supper.

Once in a while, too, the favored group would be asked to wait — and then we feasted on oysters, by no means so easily obtainable in inland towns then.

I ran the hotel for three days. The celebration of Washington's birthday is a great occasion in Laredo and Nuevo Laredo and the entire Widener family wanted to go, so I volunteered to operate the establishment.

My chief duty, of course, was to register the guests and assign them to rooms. Another duty was to stand at the dining room door and collect the money for their dinner as the train passengers were leaving. (The train each way stopped in Cotulla for the noon meal). As the charge was $1, this was easy. I do recall that on one occasion a passenger took a nickel cigar and, to have counted 95 cents in change would have delayed the line of customers, so I said, "The cigar is on the house."

There was only one untoward incident. A guest had left his hat in the lobby when he came in for supper and, upon returning to the lobby, his hat was gone and an old one was in its place. I pointed out that I had failed to turn on the lights in the lobby and that someone might have taken the wrong hat by mistake.

But he was angry and insisted that it had been stolen; furthermore, the hotel was going to have to pay for the hat. I indicated a sign on the wall that said the hotel management was not responsible for articles unless they were placed in the hotel safe. Even the absurdity of putting a hat in a safe did not lessen his anger.

About then, a man came in and the complaining guest said, "That's my hat." The other removed it and replied, "I guess so — anyway, it isn't mine; I wanted to go to the drug store before it closed and picked up the wrong one."

He was a traveling salesman who stopped at the hotel several times a month and was well respected. Also he was bigger than the complaining individual, who now looked as though he regretted having been quite so vehement.

The Wideners returned and I retired as a hotel man — but the experience gave me a different outlook on the business.

It was in April of 1921 that I decided to return to Memphis to visit my mother and then seek a newspaper job in West Texas. I was regretful at leaving Cotulla and the Wideners seemed sorry to see me go.

It was the end of a significant chapter in my life.

Blackhawks Smother Eagles, 41-12, With Ground Attack

Wielding a crushing ground attack and a stout defense, the Phillips Blackhawks smashed the Canyon Eagles, 41-12, Saturday night at Blackhawk Stadium in the non-conference finale for the Eagles.

The Eagles fashioned two scoring drives, the first in the opening minutes of the game and the second to lead off second half play. But otherwise the Eagles were never in the game.

Halfback Tommy Carter almost personally accounted for the Phillips win as he gained 195 yards on jaunts of 73, 20, 12, 17, and 30 yards, along with shorter gains.

Richardson Scores First
Quarterback Jerry Richardson tallied first for Canyon on a 12-yard option play around left end and fullback Chuck Nester posted the final six-pointer with a six-yard blast over right guard. Both attempts at the two-point conversion failed.

The Blackhawks scored one in the first period, three times in the second quarter, twice in the third stanza, and once in the fourth quarter.

First Eagle score came in the opening minutes of play following end Jimmy Killingsworth's interception of Phillip quarterback Robert Montgomery's pass on the first play of the game. Killingsworth, playing defensive halfback, swiped the ball on the Canyon 45 and returned it to the Phillips 32.

Took Six Plays
From there, it took six plays for the Eagles to score.

Nester started the march with a five yard plunge over right guard, then tried left guard for one-yard after Richardson picked up four yards around left end. Tommy Henderson carried for five to the Phillips 15 and Nester went up the middle for three more.

Richardson worked the option to score. Nester's try for the two-point over left tackle was stopped short and the Eagles were in front for the only time during the game, 6-0.

Marched 71 Yards
After receiving the kickoff in the second half the Eagles marched 71 yards to paydirt, riding the passing arm of Richardson. Three pass completions, two by end John Wear and one by Henderson, kept the drive alive.

On the drive, Nester gained one up the middle, halfback Jim Marrs lost three, and Richardson hit Wear on a 12-yard pass play for the first down. Henderson gained two before Richardson threw incomplete to Wear, then completed one to Wear on the 50-yard line for another first. Marrs got two at left guard, interference was ruled on Henderson and Richardson's pass to him stood up on the Phillips 36.

Nester hit the center of the line for five and two yards, Richardson's pass was incomplete to Wear, then Richardson worked left end for gains of six and eight yards. Henderson then circled right end for 11 yards to the Phillips 6.

Nester Goes Over
Nester went over from there. On the conversion try, interference was ruled on Wear and Phillips was penalized a yard and a half, and the second Richardson-Wear pass attempt was incomplete. Phillips led at this point, 28-12.

First Blackhawk TD came in the closing minutes of the first quarter after Canyon fumbled the ball to the 'Hawks on the Phillips 32. After the Eagles drew a five-yard penalty, Carter broke around left end on a delayed handoff and out-sprinted Eagles defenders to score.

After Carter crossed the line of scrimmage, Richardson was the only Eagle to come close to the speedster. The Canyon safety man didn't have the speed to overhaul Carter, however. The score was tied at 6-6 after end Bill Vandivere's kick was no good.

Caps 60-Yard Drive
Fullback Gary Bullard plunged over from the Canyon 1, capping a 60-yard 'Hawk drive to open the second period, for the second Phillips TD. Montgomery tossed to Vandivere for the PAT.

Carter got the third Phillips tally with a two-yard scamper around left end and Jack Smith booted the extra point to put Phillips in front, 21-6.

Phillips blocked Marrs' punt attempt and took over the ball on the Canyon 29 in the closing minutes of the first half and drove for the fourth Hawk score. Halfback Rusty Price scored from six yards out over right guard, and Smith kicked the conversion to make it 28-6.

After Canyon scored in the third stanza, Phillips marched 71 yards to score, with Price skirting right end for six yards. Smith's kick was no good.

Early in the fourth quarter, Price hit over right tackle for one yard and the six pointer. Smith's kick added the point, for the 41-12 score.

Washington Report

Challenge

By Representative Walter Rogers
18th Congressional District

No crystal ball or sixth sense is required to realize the problems which beset mankind today. One has only to pick up any newspaper and scan the headlines to get an idea of that with which our generation must wrestle and solve every day.

A glance at history and the exercise of even moderate vision into the future reminds us that these problems will increase and will, in all likelihood, intensify. As those which challenged our forefathers differ from those which confront us today, so will those which must be met by our children and grandchildren be altered in succeeding generations.

It has always been the character of the American people to seek, by their own initiative, that which would improve their own standards as well as those of their fellow man. This is the American way, and I hope Mr. Khrushchev observed this on his recent visit to the United States.

Avoid Frustration By Getting Titles Now, Money Pleads

Bill Money, Randall County tax assessor-collector, predicts that there will be many frustrated trailer owners next February and March when re-registration of motor vehicles is due.

By the terms of a new law, trailers over 4,000 pounds will have to have certificates of title for the first time.

Titles can be obtained now, Money said, while there is still time to meet certain requirements regarding proof of ownership and serial numbers. February and March will be a poor time for handling this new requirement, he said.

Trio for Theft

Three men pleaded guilty to theft under $5 last week in Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson's Justice Court No. 1 and were fined $215.50 each, the maximum.

The men fell victim to Judge Wilson's promise to crack down on persons convicted of petty theft in his court. Two weeks ago, two ex-convicts were fined $215.50 each after pleading guilty to stealing five gallons of gasoline.

The three sentenced last week were James Carl Smith, 18, of Littlefield, Dwain Darrell Lovett, 26, of Littlefield, and Sammy Eugene Kerbo, 23, of Rt. 2, Gould, Okla. Smith was absent without leave from the Army and was being held in county jail.

The trio was accused of taking a generator from a pump off an irrigation well belonging to Leonard Batenhorst. The well is located near Umbarger.

Batenhorst met the three men in a car as he was going to the well and wrote down the license number of the car. After discovering

OBVIOUS

A friend of mine came in to Amarillo by plane not long ago and was met at the airport by his wife. While waiting for his baggage a snazzy looking airline hostess came by and my friend greeted her warmly, "Hi, Miss Jones."

"How do you know her name?" my friend's somewhat suspicious wife asked, to which he replied, "It was listed in our plane, right up front, with the names of the pilot and co-pilot."

"I see," said the wife sweetly. "Tell me, dear, what was the pilot's name?"

The moral to this little story is we often overlook the obvious. Some times we overlook how useful and inexpensive telephone service really is. And to make your service even more useful and convenient why not order an extension for the kitchen — the cost — 75 cents a month plus a low, one time installation charge.

P.S. The pilot's name was Smith.

BEAUTY ON DUTY

What does this headline mean to you?

If you're a homemaker, it could mean a new washer or dryer, or maybe even a new dishwasher.

To a man "Beauty on Duty" could mean a new car or the new transistor radio that brings you the World Series.

For teenagers, it could mean the old but treasured jalopy sitting proudly in the driveway.

But here at the Telephone Company, we have our own special definition of "Beauty on Duty" — a bedroom telephone in color.

A bedroom phone in color deserves the title, too, because it brightens your bedroom while helping you keep in touch between chores during the day. It also gives you a sense of security and keeps you free from care and worry at night.

Color telephones are also available with a built-in night light — ideal for bedrooms. To order your bedroom phone in color, just call the telephone business office.

HOW NOT TO TIE UP YOUR PHONES

I was passing the time of day with a fellow recently when he suddenly blurted out, as if he'd just thought of something, "I just found out that if the receiver isn't on your phone straight and firm that all the phones in your house can be tied up and nobody can call you."

"That's right," I said.

"Well," he said, "You ought to tell people about that. It's important."

My friend's right. It IS important to make sure receivers on all your telephones are on the hook. It's even more important if you're on a party line. A receiver off any phone ties up the line for everyone else.

"Why," I asked my friend, "Are you so suddenly interested in this subject?"

"Because a fellow tried to call me and couldn't, and I missed out on a fishing trip — that's why," he said sadly.

Can't say I blame him, can you?

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Conversions Evade Buffs As Miners Win, 13-12

West Texas got two tries at the two-point conversion Saturday night and both times the run was halted short of the stripe that would have wrapped up the game as the Buffs fell to Texas Western, 13-12, in a Border Conference contest.

It was the second one-point loss for Coach Clark Jarnagin's herd this year, and the fourth loss of the season. Three of the losses have come in conference play.

Both teams scored in the first and third periods, with the teams alternating scoring drives.

Draw First Blood

The Miners drew first blood with a 77-yard march, then capped their scoring with a 75-yard drive. The Buffaloes scored on drives of 44 and 67 yards.

Junior quarterback Jim Wood skipped 18 yards on a keeper play to grab the first WT touchdown, but halfback Jimmy Janes picked up only two of the necessary three yards for the conversion.

In the third quarter, quarterback Carl Johnston hit end Fred Hedgecock with a nine yard pass for the second Buff tally. Wood was swarmed under as he attempted to pass for the two-pointer and the pass fell incomplete.

Adams Breaks Arm

Freshman halfback Billy Adams turned in the top Buff run of the night on this drive, as he scampered 33 yards before being tripped up. The nifty speedster broke his arm in the tackle, and probably will be lost to the Buffs the remainder of the season.

It took Texas Western just five plays to score the first time it had the ball, climaxed by a 41-yard pass play from John Furman to Kent Babb. Furman then booted the extra point that decided the game.

It took 10 plays for the Miners to score in the third quarter with a two-yard dive by Charles McCalmont posting the six points. Babb's kick was no good.

The Miners had one TD called back. It took place in the fourth quarter when Furman passed 12 yards to Leeland Font in the end zone, but the Miners had an illegal receiver downfield and it cost them 15 yards and a down. The drive fizzled there.

WT Threatened Again

WT then mounted an offense that carried deep into Miner territory, but stout Miner defensive play killed the threat.

Coach Jarnagin used his own version of LSU's "Chinese Bandits" in the fourth period as he used a third team instead of the usual two to stymie the Miners.

WT's other one-point loss came at the hands of Arizona when the Wildcats edged the Buffs, 7-6, in the dedication game of the new Buffalo Stadium. In addition, the Buffs have lost to Arizona State and North Texas.

GOOD KNUZ KOPY KMD KRAZY KALL LETTERS OF STATIONS

By OSCAR GRIFFIN

Ever since the major college football season started a couple of weeks ago, I've been getting these releases from Humble Oil and Refining Company telling what games the company plans to broadcast each week.

The release each time simply says that Humble will telecast the Texas-OU game, for instance, then lists the other games in the Southwest Conference and tells what radio stations will carry the game.

The humor and congruity in radio station call letters didn't really hit home until a couple of days ago.

For instance, there's station KERV in Kerrville, KITE in San Antonio, KGAS in Carthage, WACO in Waco, KRYS in Corpus Christi, and KHUZ in Borger.

There are some call letters which make you wonder what the station owner was thinking when he applied for them. Along this line, there's KOPY in Alice, KORA in Bryan, KILT in Houston, KOSY in Texarkana, and KRUN in Ballinger.

But some call letters give you some information about the owner or city. For example, KXIT in Dalhart, KNUZ in Houston, KRIG in Odessa, KVET in Austin, and KNOW in Austin.

Some use letters from the name of the town. Like KWTX in Waco, KBST in Big Spring, KFST in Fort Stockton, KMD in Midland, KWFT in Wichita Falls, KTEM in Temple, and KSEY in Seymour.

Then there's one that really played me after I caught on: KSVF in Artesia.

Canyon's Eagles got beat by a very good club Saturday night when the Blackhaws snowed the local eleven, 41-12, and Phillips looked impressive in the win.

A sports reporter from Borger called the "Hawks" "one of the best triple A clubs in the state." And he probably was right.

On its two touchdown drives, the Eagles looked sharp, but apparently it took the Blackhawk defense a while to get adjusted after resting before the game and during the half. Because after the Eagles scored their TDs in each half, they didn't seem to have a chance.

Phillips has one of the best pass defenders in Bill Vandivere in these parts, but Jimmy Killingsworth will crowd him. Especially impressive was Killingsworth's swipe of the pass and the 23-yard return that opened the game.

The Eagles looked pretty good, even though they were badly beaten. They were beaten by a far superior team, however.

This week Canyon takes on Dalhart: here's how I pick that game and several others after hitting eight of 10 last week for a season record of 42 and 15:

Dalhart at Canyon — Dalhart scouts were highly skeptical of the Wolves' chances against the Eagles when they saw Canyon down Wellington. So I'll have to take the Eagles.

Tulia at Friona—Tulia has had some tough opponents this year, and that could be the difference in this game. Tulia in a toughie.

Vega at Happy—The Cowboys will punch the Longhorns hard in this District 2-B affair as Happy rolls on.

Other games:
White Deer over Clarendon.
Stinnett over Lefors.

Gruver over Spearman.
Floydada over Slaton.
Abernathy over Morton.
Claude over Darrouzett.
Texas over Arkansas.

These winds we've had lately can be treacherous. Fellow that lives down the street got something in his eye the other day. After it bothered him a couple of days he decided to go to the doctor and get it washed out.

The doctor examined the eye and discovered one of those little foreign cars lodged in the corner.
